Choir Postpones 3 p. m. Show; College to Help Buy Robes

The Saturday production of the a cappella choir minstrel show, "Simon Legree's Charcoal Capers," originally planned for 3 p. m. tomorrow afternoon, has been postponed until 8:15 p. m., according to James Clark, Midland, director. Tonight's performance will be at 8:15 in the Chapel as previously scheduled. Tickets may be purchased from choir members or at the door.

"The a cappella choir will have new robes for the tour this spring if present plans go as expected," said Mr. David L. Strickler, director of vocal organizations, after a conference with Mr. Paul Trautman, business manager. The college has agreed to help the choir dollar for dollar in the purchase of new robes. "Proceeds from the minstrel show," Mr. Strickler said, "when increased by previous earnings by choir members for the robe fund and doubled by the college should amount to more than twelve hundred dollars, nearly enough to pay for an entire outfitting of new choir robes."

Monologist to Talk In Chapel Monday

Dr. E. T. Iglehard from Japan
To Speak Wednesday, Thursday

Miss Irene Bewley, famous for her character portrayals of life in the southern Appalachians, will present "Smoky Mountain Sketches" in chapel next Monday and Tuesday. Miss Bewley of Greenville, Tenn., takes many of her monologues from authentic folk material, from her own background or from people she has known personally. Her characters are chosen, for the most part, from the more primitive type of people, because she feels they are fast disappearing and are of great value in folk history.

The chapel speaker for Wednesday and Thursday will be Dr. Edwin T. Iglehard, from Awo-Yama college, Tokyo, Japan.

Miss Esther Middlewood, state director of health education, discussed emotional health last Wednesday and Thursday in chapel. "One out of every ten persons in this room are emotionally immature," she said.

Miss Middlewood applied her discussion to the college age, comparing symptoms of emotional immaturity in children of varying ages to symptoms commonly seen among college students. She said that "blood" is not important to emotional health.

That only the development of an abiding faith of man in man can assure us of the victory of the future was the opinion given by Dr. Royal G. Hall, professor of history, in an address in the chapel services last Monday and Tuesday.

In his address Dr. Hall gave an account of observations made during his recent trip to Europe.

Boayue to Present Slides

Joseph Boayue, Bunadee, Liberia, will present some slides and a lecture on Liberia Sunday at 6:30 p. m. in the First Methodist church, according to Stanley Kresge, Detroit, secretary of Wesley Fellowship. There will also be a worship service.

Federalist Week to Start

World Federalist week will begin with a special meeting next Thursday at which Dr. Royal G. Hall, professor of history, will discuss with the group some phase of his recent trip to Europe, according to Lawrence Wade, Homer, publicity head.

The week will end with the meeting March 1 at which Mr. Phillips Ruopp, president of the Federalist Press, will speak. These meetings are open to the student body.

Tryouts To Begin For Two Comedies

Players to Give Next Show
Surrounded by Audience in Gym.

Open tryouts for the next Albion College Players' production will be Tuesday at 7 p. m. and Wednesday at 4 and 7 p. m. in the scene shop on the third floor of North hall, according to Mr. M. V. Michalak, instructor in speech.

Two one-hour circular plays will be presented each night, April 1 and 2, on an oval stage in Kresge gymnasium which is especially suited to comedies and provides increased acting areas, greater intimacy with the audience and a realism not achieved in the traditional stage. College, universities and community groups throughout the country have adopted it with particular success, Mr. Michalak stated.

"The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," a farce by Anatole France will be presented. Rights are being secured for the other one. An evening of comedy will be given equivalent to a full length play.

3 Debate Teams Will Enter Contest

Three debate teams from Albion college have been entered in the State Men's and Women's Debate tournament to be held at Wayne university tomorrow, announced Dr. J. V. Garland, professor of speech.

Debating in the men's league are: Peirce Lewis, Pleasant Ridge, and Jack Zimmerman, Albion, negative; Neil Bintz, Charlotte, and Thad Earl, Eaton Rapids, affirmative. Adarose Beach, Ironwood, and Linda Bowman, Charlevoix, will speak as a negative team in the women's tournament.

This debate is being sponsored by the Michigan Intercollegiate Speech league.

Irwin to Address A.A.U.P.

Dr. Joseph Irwin, professor of English, will present a report from the committee on tenure at an Association of American University Professors meeting at 5 p. m. Monday in the Student center.

Smith Owns 23 Volumes of Philately, Finds Belgian Issues Most Attractive

Many a grade school boy has collected stamps, but few have continued the hobby until he owns a collection of 35,000 varieties mounted in 23 volumes as Dewey Smith, Sandusky, Ohio, has.

Smith first started collecting at the age of seven, but his real enthusiasm as a philatelist or stamp collector began while he was in high school. This interest grew during the war when he was in Europe with the Army counter-intelligence corps.

While overseas he developed a desire to specialize in the stamps of Belgium. In his opinion there are three phases of philately: Belgium, United States and general collecting, in that order. He feels that too many collectors try to cover too wide a field and would accomplish more with their stamps if they would specialize.

Belgian stamps attracted his attention because the fine engraving and use of colors make them among the most beautiful issued by any nation. He secured many for his col-

Dikova Enthralls Campus Audiences With Piano Concert

By Barbara Hearst

Enthusiastic ovations saluted the concert performance of Madame Dontche Dikova, Bulgarian refugee pianist, Thursday evening last week in the Chapel. Her appearance was sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional musical fraternity.

Madame Dikova enthralled her audience for more than an hour and a half with a versatile exhibition of her mastery of the keyboard. Combining outstanding talent for tonal balance and rhythmic fidelity with imagination and a sensitive feeling for color, the artist presented a program of selections not usually included on concert programs.

Remarkable strength and facility which few women pianists possess was also displayed in Madame Dikova's playing.

To open her program Madame Dikova offered an 18th century work, "Orgel Concerto" by Vivaldi-Bach, a suite with contrasting tempos and moods. She followed this with Beethoven's "Sonata Opus. 10, No. 3" which is seldom heard in concerts.

She began the second half of her concert with Schumann's "Carnaval," a series of picturesque musical sketches. Her next three numbers, all by Bulgarian composers, have rarely been presented before American concert audiences. They were: "Three Preludes" by Stabekoff, "Humoresque" by Weadigeroff and "Peasant Dance" by Bensnisan.

A familiar Strauss "Waltz," arranged by the contemporary, Dohnanyi, was Madame Dikova's final number. Afterward the artist was presented a bouquet of American Beauty roses by Dorothy Steininger, Wayne, president of Sigma Alpha Iota.

The enthusiastic audience called Madame Dikova back to play three encore numbers. They were: a Shostakovich prelude, Chopin's "F Minor Nocturne" and a Bulgarian dance form.

Madame Dikova became an honorary member of Sigma Alpha Iota, Iota Pi chapter, last Saturday afternoon.

2 Students to Enter State Speech Finals

Joanna Dean, Albion, and Peirce Lewis, Pleasant Ridge, winners of the formal local preliminaries for the State Oratory contest sponsored by the Michigan Intercollegiate Speech league, will represent Albion college in the state finals at Alma college March 4, according to Mrs. M. V. Michalak, instructor in speech.

The winners of the State Oratory contest will speak in the regional contest. Regional tournament winners will then compete in the national finals.

Bob Eggleston

Cagers Will Face Dutch, Bearcats

The Albion college basketball team enters the last week of MIAA competition assured of at least a tie for second place. A win in either of the Briton's two remaining games would give Albion the runner-up spot in itself. Hillsdale has already won the championship. As the standings are now, Alma, Hope, or Kalamazoo could tie Albion depending on the outcome of games to be played this week.

Tomorrow night the Sprandelmen travel to Holland to play Hope. In a game played earlier this season at the Kresge gymnasium the Britons edged out a 62-60 victory over the Dutchmen. In that contest Albion came from behind in the final minute to gain the triumph. Before the final basket by Lou Black the score had been tied 11 times, and the lead had changed hands 13 times.

Must Stop Buter, Van Dewege
In order to win tomorrow Albion will have to stop two of the league's highest scorers, Herk Buter and Bud Van DeWege. These two forwards collected 27 points between them the last time the two teams met even though Buter left the game on fouls. Moose Holwerda and Nick Yonkers, Hope's aggressive guards, are also expected to have an easier time hitting their homecourt basket than they had at Albion in January.

Hillsdale, who clinched its first basketball title in 14 years by defeating Kalamazoo 64-56 last Tuesday, comes to the Kresge gym next Wednesday for the last league game of the season. The Bearcats will floor a stronger team than they had when they defeated Albion 67-58 last month at Hillsdale.

Exhibit Will Include Photos of Campus

Fifty representative pictures from American college and university campuses will be displayed in the lounge of the Student center from Monday, Feb. 21-March 4.

The exhibit is made up of pictures selected from hundreds which have been taken during the last seven years for the Chicago Tribune's weekly rotogravure feature entitled "Youth on the Campus." A number of pictures taken on the Albion campus will be included in the display.

Since the Tribune began these picture reports of student campus life in 1940, Andrew Pavlin, the photographer, and Tribune beauty editor Eleanor Nangle, or her assistant, Mary Skaggs, who gather and write the data about each campus, have visited more than one hundred seventy-five schools from coast to coast. They have traveled more than 115,000 miles and in every state.

Pictures from the Albion campus were published in the Tribune Oct. 27, 1946. The Bay View Summer college has been featured twice: Aug. 24, 1947, and Aug. 22, 1948. Photographer Pavlin, a twice-decorated veteran of World War I, is the father of a son now in college. He has been "pledged" by sororities at Michigan State college and the University of Wisconsin and wears the pins on his suspenders to prove it.

YMCA to Start Bureau For Counselor Placement

The YMCA is starting a placement bureau on campus for men interested in camp counselling this summer, according to Max Toy, Lansing, chairman.

There are openings in most of the "Y" camps in the state, he stated. There are a great many skills in demand; hence, a great many openings remain for those interested in camp work. The YMCA is interested in men with high Christian character and men who are interested in working with boys.

WSSF Campaign Will Begin March 2

Chapel Programs Will Feature
Mr. Demetrios Cordas, Movie

The annual drive for the World Student Service fund has been scheduled to take place from March 2-8, according to Edwin McCurry, Muskegon, chairman of the drive. This is one of the two annual drives in which students are requested to make cash donations. The goal for the drive is $1400.

WSSF is a relief organization of American school and college students and professors for assistance to students and professors in the universities of war-devastated countries. Funds are used to provide food, clothing, medicine, housing and study aid for students abroad.

Mr. Demetrios Cordas will address chapel audiences March 2 and 3, sponsored by the WSSF organization. A movie, "This Is Their Story," will be shown in chapel March 7 and 8. Contributions for the fund will be solicited during this time.

A personal solicitation campaign will be carried out to gather funds. Each student will be contacted personally by a representative of the W.S.S.F. and asked to contribute.

Dr. Hall Speaks At Forum Meeting

"Forces Behind the Making of a New Europe" was the theme of the speech given by Dr. Royal G. Hall, professor of history, yesterday in the Chapel at the Forum club's monthly open forum.

Dr. Hall showed how factors previous to the war, besides the war itself, influenced the breaking up of the "Old World," and he forecast a new order in Europe.

He illustrated this change with the triple challenge which England is facing today. These challenges are: (1) To find her power position in a world in which she is no longer the controller of the balance of power; (2) to try to create a new economic setup which will be neither communistic nor capitalistic, and (3) to turn from her empire and still retain the benefits she derives from it.

Goodrich Club to Initiate 7

Seven men will be formally initiated by Goodrich club at 12 midnight tomorrow, according to Lester Shiere, West Somerville, Mass., president. The men, who have been informally initiated this week, are: Duane Dean, Saginaw; Omesh and Ramesh Khanna, Bihar, India; Randalph Roulier, Quincy; Lawrence Wade, Homer, and David Davies and William Shenefelt, Dearborn.

The Way We See It...

A curious dialogue between two students recently—at the beginning of the period of rough initiation, to be exact—poses an interesting subject for speculation. It went something like this:

1st: "What do fraternities have to have hell week for anyway?"

2nd: "Tradition, of course."

In that one short answer is contained ample possibilities for volumes of argumentation, but boiled down to plain talk it would appear that either the second person was being facetious or else he was sincere in his belief that no other excuse for hell week was needed.

In either case there is indicated a need for serious self-interrogation and re-evaluation on the part of all of us who share his opinion. Suppose the answer was intended to be ironical. It would probably follow, then, that no good reason for hell week could be supplied; and in realization of the fact "tradition" was tossed out lightly.

On the other hand, if the answer was intended seriously and tradition really is the only justification, the question follows: "Is tradition enough? Should there not be other more intelligent reasons for continuing a practice which on many campuses has been eliminated already."

If in answering this, one can honestly conclude that no justification is necessary other than the fact that hundreds have adhered to the practice in years gone by, then we say, "More power to tradition."

If, however, one reaches the opposite conclusion (as will many who are honest with themselves), then we would like to ask with the first student: "What do fraternities have to have hell week for anyway?"

UNDERNEATH THE ARCHES

A One Act Play

Characters

Beatrice, a girl

Benedick, a boy

Scene: Porch of Susanna Wesley hall, 1147, a Saturday night.

Beatrice: What a perfectly "too-too" evening. Wasn't it grand?

Benedick: Yeah! Kiss me.

Beatrice: You're such a marvelous bridge player. Where did you ever learn to bid slam on a three card suit?

Benedick: In the army. Where did you learn to trump your partner's ace? Kiss me.

Beatrice: In the dorm. Why should I kiss you?

Benedick: I have a great lust for you. Kiss me.

Beatrice: Oh! you wonderful man, you. Bend down.
(He stoops over. She kisses him coquettishly.)

Beatrice: There. Gimme your pin, Benny—and a duplicate set of keys to your car.

Benedick: What?

Beatrice: Don't stall. We're going steady now, aren't we?

Benedick: Hero's got my pin. It's at the jeweler's. She had to pry the stones out when her allowance didn't come. Got your Spanish done?

Beatrice: No! I'm hungry.

Benedick: How do you expect me to pass Spanish? Kiss me.

Beatrice: Meet me here at 7:53 Monday morning and every other morning. I'll have the Spanish done.

Benedick: I'm hungry.

Benedick: Kiss me.

Beatrice: Bill Dogberry and John Verges sit next to me in Chapel. Know either of them?

Benedick: Yeah.

Beatrice: Trade places with one of them.

Benedick: Okay. Kiss me.

Beatrice: Look! There's that Ursula. Look how she fawns on Don Pedro. Isn't that disgusting?

Benedick: Yeah. Kiss me.

Beatrice: All right. Then you'll have to go. I'll miss the blink.
(He grabs her and crushes her to him hungrily; they stand that way for three minutes; she pushes him away)

Beatrice: Oh! you wonderful man, you. I've got to go. Spread in Margaret's room tonight. I'm hungry. G'night.

Benedick: 'Night. See you in the Eat Shop for breakfast.

One of the sets being mounted in this way is one of eight of its kind in the world. Smith secured it in Germany from an American citizen who sold the sets to pay his passage back to this country after the war. It contains all the German commemorative stamps issued in 1945. They are mounted and canceled with a special hand cancel which was used only for the eight sets.

Smith's collection has been displayed by the Garfield-Perry Stamp club in Cleveland and the Sandusky Stamp club. He is a member of the Society of Philatelic Americans, one of the nation's two largest organizations for stamp collectors.

ATO, TKE, Deltas, Sigma Nu End Season in Dead Heat, To Determine Winner Next Week

Albion's intramural basketball loop ended the regular portion of its season Tuesday evening with four teams finishing in a dead heat for first position. Sigma Nu, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Tau Delta and Tau Kappa Epsilon all finished the season with five and two records.

Since league rules call for a play-off between the first and second place teams it will be necessary for the four teams to play single elimination games next week. The two winning teams will engage in the three game league playoff. Team managers will draw to determine opponents for the elimination.

The Delt's 52-38 win over Sigma Nu was sparked by Hamilton Scharff's 18 points. Bill Johnson was high for Sigma Nu with 10.

TKE beat ATO 44-56 as Herb Gerhard, TKE, made good with 16 and Jim Berglund, ATO, made 18.

Delta Sigma Phi nosed out Sigma Chi 43-41 in an overtime game. Ed Kehe was high for Delt Sig with 13 and Tom Siler made 11 for Sigma Chi.

Independents swamped Goodrich club 65-16. Donald Ashdown made 35 points for Independents while Burton Sturtridge made 5 for Goodrich club.

In the second team games TKE beat ATO in a close 45-47 tilt. The Delt second team won by a forfeit from the Delt Sigs.

Drawings were held last night to determine the playoffs of the four-way tie for first place.

In Rain or Shine The Dorm Goes Up

Living quarters for the male portion of Albion college's class of 1953 are nearer completion despite the weather.

A crew of 40 men are now working daily on Seaton hall, the new $800,000 men's dormitory, and the building is beginning to look more like it will when ready for occupancy next fall.

The brickwork on the exterior of the dormitory is nearly completed and the building is almost ready for laying the tile roof. Most noticeable of the interior work is the lathing and plastering of the walls. Many of the men now at work are special tradesmen, such as electricians, plumbers and steam-fitters, according to Mr. Les Hite, construction superintendent.

All freshman men, with the exception of those who live in Albion or receive permission from the college to reside elsewhere, will live in the new dormitory, according to Mr. Marvin Pahl, registrar.

Battenhouse to Talk On Poet Thursday

Includes Chapter on Eliot In 'Poets of Christian Thought'

Dr. Henry M. Battenhouse, professor of English literature, will give a lecture entitled, "T. S. Eliot, Poet, Critic and Philosopher" next Thursday in the Physics lecture room at 7:30 p. m., according to John McDonald, Contributors' club president. The lecture will be open to all.

Dr. Battenhouse has given considerable attention to Eliot's poetry, his criticism of life and poetry and his theological views on religion. Eliot was a Nobel prize winner and was born at St. Louis, Missouri, is now a guest of Princeton university with Albert Einstein and Thomas Mann.

Eliot was graduated from Harvard in 1909 with an A.B. degree. He settled in England in 1914. He first attracted attention when "The Wasteland" was published in 1922. The poem presented a picture of current modern life.

Eliot is a member of the Symbolist movement which started in France. The symbolist depicts the tortured and errant mind of man by picturing a scene from nature, according to Dr. Battenhouse. Eliot is now beginning to lecture throughout the country.

The book, "Poets of Christian Thought," by Dr. Battenhouse, published in late 1947, is concluded with a chapter on Eliot.

Siler Wins Scholarship

Dean Emil Leffler has announced the winning candidates for the University of Michigan state scholarship. Lloyd Siler, Wyandotte, is the first choice and Helen Allen, Pontiac, is the alternate candidate.

The scholarship is good for a year of graduate work in any field and has a value of $750, Dean Leffler said.

'Emotional Maturity' Keynotes Address

Miss Esther Middlewood, director of mental health for the state of Michigan, presented a lecture on "Emotional Maturity" in the Chapel last Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Middlewood in an interview stated that most of her work has been primarily with parents and teachers and not too much with college students. However, she plans to do more work with college students in the future. Miss Middlewood emphasized the fact that college students can do much to adjust emotional problems now while they are younger and more flexible.

Dr. Wayne H. Fleenor, director of public relations, brought Miss Middlewood to Albion. She was in Albion during Religious Emphasis week last year and spoke to a group of teachers. Dr. Fleenor brought her back to speak to the students the past week.

Miss Middlewood began her lecture by answering some of the questions left over from the consultation periods Wednesday afternoon. She said a person has to satisfy his own problems with the understanding and help of a consultant.

A mature person is objective with himself and his problems, asserted Miss Middlewood. "I doubt if man can be a happy person unless he can build a mature philosophy of life." After the lecture she answered all student questions in an open discussion.

Repair Work Stalls WANR's Revival

Struwin Expects to Finish Rebuilding Transmitter in Month

After completion of transmitter rebuilding and installation of a new radio console, radio station WANR will return to the air, according to Mr. M. Victor Michalak, instructor in speech and station faculty advisor. In approximately a month Mr. Richard Struwin, instructor in chemistry, who is rebuilding the equipment, hopes to have it in working order.

Program plans have been completed and will follow last year's policy, stated Charles Bishop, St. Johns, station manager. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the station will broadcast from 7-7:45 a. m. and from 7:30-10:30 p. m.; Friday from 7-7:45 a. m. There will be no transmissions on Mondays, Friday evenings, Saturdays or Sundays.

Programs will be composed mostly of music, ranging from popular to classical, and several broadcasts of ABC transcriptions, Bishop stated. Arrangements are being made to broadcast recordings of "Science News Letter," Westinghouse's "Excursions in Science," "Guest Star," "Veterans Administration" and other well known programs.

Duryea Morton, Sinking Spring, Pa., and Donald Neil, Albion, are co-program chairmen, and Thomas Wilson, Detroit, is chief engineer.

Colleges Change Entry Rules

A new agreement between Michigan colleges and high schools that will discontinue the system of fulfilling certain major and minor courses for college admittance was presented by Dean Emil Leffler in the January issue of "College and University."

Under this agreement graduates of high schools participating in the program are accepted by the colleges without reference to the courses of study they have pursued providing they are among the more able students of their class.

Briton Cagers Take Two Wins

Sigren Tops Point Barrage As Kazoo, Tri-State Fall

The Albion college basketball team regained sole possession of second place in the MIAA standings by defeating Kalamazoo 72-66 at Kresge gymnasium last Saturday night. Two nights later the Britons kept up their high-scoring pace by stopping Tri-State college of Angola, Ind., 78-64 in the Rotary benefit game.

During the first 10 minutes of the Kazoo tilt the Hornets built up a 14-19 advantage and lengthened it to 18-26 before the Britons started their drive. Led by Jim Dies who counted nine points, the Britons tallied 26 markers in the next 10 minutes to lead at the half 40-36.

Britons Set Pace for Second Half

Albion kept up the pace after the intermission and moved to a 62-50 lead. Nine consecutive points by Kalamazoo brought the Hornets dangerously close before Chuck Mohl tipped in a rebound to give Albion a lead which it maintained until the end of the game.

Although Kazoo had three men who scored more points than the highest Briton, a well balanced team paid off for Albion. Dick Allen was high for Albion with 13 points followed by Lou Black, Dies, and Vince Sigren who had 11 each. Bob Eggleston was a basket behind them with 9 markers.

Sigren Leads Britons

Vince Sigren led the locals to their 78-64 win over Tri-State Monday evening as he counted 22 markers to lead both teams in scoring. Coach Walter Sprandel chose to start a new combination of Mohl, Arny Pinkney, Max Berry, Bob Clark and Don Little against the engineers.

The new combination led the visitors into the second quarter when the regular Briton line took over. The teams were evenly matched during the first half with the locals unable to generate any really effective offense. Two last minute baskets by Ed Lambert gave Tri-State a 33-35 lead at the intermission.

Locals Pull Away

The game remained close throughout the third period but with the start of the final stanza the Britons, with Sigren and Little hitting, began to pull away fast. During this last 10 minutes Albion counted 30 points while holding the visitors to 11.

Eleven men counted in the scoring for Albion as the entire squad saw action. Berry followed Sigren in the scoring with 15 markers.

The Britons now rest in second place with a record of 5 wins against 3 losses in league play. For the entire season the Britons have a record of 10 wins compared with 9 setbacks.

Tracksters Lose At Ohio Wesleyan; Haas Sets Mark

Bishops Take Nine Firsts To Overcome Albion Balance; Twenty-Year Shot Record Falls

Indoor track was ushered into the Briton sports schedule last Saturday afternoon when the locals, minus several potential point winners, dropped a 72½-51½ decision to the powerful Ohio Wesleyan university. Several Britons were unable to make the trip to Delaware, Ohio, because of scholastic difficulties.

In spite of the Albion loss, the best performance of the afternoon was attributed to Briton John Haas. Haas, a mainstay in the Briton field events a year ago, uncorked a heave of 43 ft. 7½ in. in the shot put that shattered a 20-year-old Edwards field house record by 2½ feet. In a practice toss before the meet began Haas was measured with a 44 ft. 10 in. heave.

Bob Ball was the high scorer for Albion with eight points coming from a first in the high hurdles and a second in the high jump. The Britons other first came in the low hurdles when Wally Brown led the way in the 40-yard race. Albion actually swept the lows when Harry Hidenfelter and Ball followed Brown, but under a scoring system used for this meet a school could only place two men in any one event.

Ted Hagadone ran second in 880 and two mile to collect six points and place him second in Albion scoring. Max Polley sprinted to the runner-up spot in the 220 besides taking third in 35-yard dash.

Two more indoor meets are scheduled for this season. Feb. 26 the Britons travel to Detroit to run the Wayne university "B" squad, and March 7 Albion goes to Kalamazoo to test Western Michigan College of Education.

By Art Keeney

QUOTES AND UNQUOTES: Overheard from the lips of the Tri-State coach Monday evening just after Vince Sigren had scored two quick buckets for Albion; "How can he do that without even so much as cracking a grin?"

Overheard in the Kalamazoo dressing room after the game last week: "Who is this number 17 anyway? Must be some red-hot freshman just coming eligible." No fellows, Jim Dies has been around a long time.

Quote from Glen Hulbert's sports column from the Kalamazoo College Index commenting on Albion's winter grid drills: "I wonder if they have started a raw meat and nail salad diet too?"

Lastly, Al Schumm, sports editor of Adrian College World: "Adrian wants to knock off the big ones—in track it will be Albion."

Perhaps the Rotary Carnival night in Kresge gymnasium, staged, we might add, for a very good cause, could have made more money than it did for the crippled kids of Albion had several groups on campus been big enough to postpone their meetings that night or have them in the afternoon so some of the members could have attended the game.

A tip of the hat down Delaware, Ohio, way to Ohio Wesleyan university, its athletes, students and coaching staff for the fine treatment of the Britons during their recent track trip to the Bishops' home grounds.

It has been brought to our attention that several expensive pieces of equipment have recently turned up missing from the training room of Kresge gymnasium. That training room has been kept open and stocked all year for the convenience of the students; it would be too bad if it had to be closed because someone couldn't keep his hands off the equipment.

Congratulations to John Haas on his record breaking performance in the shot put event during the meet with Ohio Wesleyan over the week end. Haas's heave broke a 20-year-old record at the Ohio school.
